Ngati Hine Forestry Trust

Newsletter to Owners

April 2012

Tena koutou katoa,

E rongoa atu ana i tena mea te makariri i te atatu me te mohio e tata mai ana te hotoke. Na reira te mihi atu ki a koutou e noho mai ra i o koutou tini kainga, tena ra koutou.

This newsletter has been prepared to draw your attention to an important development in the history of the Trust.

As you will all know, the Trust is moving into a new phase of development in line with its strategic plans which have been outlined at the various General Meetings held in recent years.

The Trustees are now proposing to diversify the Trust's interests to ensure ongoing asset growth into the future and additional security for you the owners.

A Chief Executive Officer will be employed to grow and develop the Trust activities and capabilities.

By now, owners will have noticed that the Trustees have advertised in local papers for a CEO.

The full advertisement reads:

“Chief Executive Officer

E rapu ana matou i tetahi toki koi, na reira tirohia mai i tenei turanga hou.

The Ngati Hine Forestry Trust is a large and rapidly expanding entity in the inland Bay of Islands. The Trust has substantial forestry assets and horticultural orchards along with a housing portfolio and other investments.

The Trust wishes to diversify its interests to ensure ongoing growth and security on behalf of its owners. We will now move into a new phase of development and have therefore created a Chief Executive Officer role. We are looking for someone who will grow and develop the Trusts' activities and capabilities, maximising the return on the Trusts' investments and moving into pro-active value adding business activities using the assets as its primary resource.

This role will require you to be both strategically and operationally focused with the ability to also create new business opportunities and build and manage key relationships.

To be successful in this role you will need to have:

- a minimum of 5 years senior managerial experience along with a relevant qualification;
- experience of and an empathy for the Maori world view;
- strong planning and implementation skills;
- excellent negotiation skills;
- a sound understanding of relevant legislation and regulations;
- excellent leadership and relationship skills;
- drive, enthusiasm and vision;
- well developed commercial skills;
- be an excellent communicator.

This is an excellent opportunity for a skilled and capable executive looking for a new and exciting challenge. Ka tupu ka ora e!

Expressions of interest are invited. Please contact Bryce Quarrie on 09 408 6060 or email bquarrie@xtra.co.nz”.

Applications closed on 11 April 2012.

If you aware of any person who may be qualified for or be interested in this position, you should draw their attention to this newsletter.

We will keep you informed of developments with this position.
